THE ROSARY OF MY YEARS,

PATHER STAN.

Some reckon their age by years Some measure their life by art, But some tell their days by the flow of their tears. And their life by the moans of their heart.

The dials of earth may show The length, not the depths, of years; Few or many they come, few or many they go; But our time is best measured by tears

That creeps through the sunny hair, And not by the scenes that we pass on our way— And not by the furrows the finger of care

On forehead and face have made Not so do we count our years; Not by the sun of the earth—but the shade

Of our souls-and the fall of our tears. For the young are ofttimes old Though their brow be bright and fair; While their blood beats warm their hearts lie cold O'er them the spring time—but winter is there—

And the old are ofttimes young When their hair is thin and white;

And they sing in age as in youth they sung. And they laugh, for their cross was light. But bead by bead I tell The resary of my years;

From a cross to a crown they lead-'tis well ! And they are blessed with a blessing of tears. Better a day of strife Than a century of sleep; Give meinstead of a long stream of life,

The tempest and tears of the deep A thousand joys may foam On the billows of all the years; But never the foam brings the brave back home... It reaches the haven through tears,

THE MAN AND THE HOUR.

Along the battle's fluming van We mark the tried and true Defenders of the cause of Man, A chosen, peerless few, Born to their mission and inspired, Oh! should they fall, we feel No spirit would like theirs be fired, No hand could wield their steel.

Yet one by one they step aside, Or on the red field He. And still their places are supplied, Still rings the battle cry; Still o'er the hoary walls of Wrong Truth's startling missiles fly, And still with steady step and strong,

And so it shall be evermore Until the Truth is known, Proclaiming Wrong's hard rule is o'er And Right is on the throne. Oh! fear not for the cause sublime Let hate do all it can, The hour shall bring the Man !

"Victory!" Under this caption, a gentleman in lows, who had procured the Compound Oxygen Treatment for his wife, writes: I am suprised at finding her so much improved in health. When she began using the Oxygen she could not sit up more than four hours at a time. Could not walk a quarter of a mile. Improved from the first inhalation, and now, having used the treatment for six weeks does considerable work around the house and can walk two miles and not be tired. Raises no more bloody matter. No cough. Sleeps and eats well. All that I can say is, 'Thank God and Doctors Starkey & Palen.'" Our Treatise on Compound Oxygen, containing large reports of cases, and full information, sent free. The New York Sun says that the Democratic tidal wave which has started in Ohio, and is running eastward with great force, calls to mind the memorable upheaval of 1874. In that year the tidal wave started in Ohio and Indiana, both of which voted in October, and were car-ried by the Democrats by a majority of more than 17,000. It then swept through Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Massachusetts, the Democrats electing Gaston for Governor by 7,032 majority. The aggregate Democratic majority in the seven States was 117,000. In the same States the Democrats elected sixty-eight members of Congress, and the Republicans only for-ty-seven. Why should not the tidal wave of this year equal that of 1874? Its magnitude eight years ago was largely ow-ing to the dissatisfaction of Republicans with their own party. Republican dis-satisfaction is stronger and more threatening now in several of these States than it was then.

One of the most popular medicines now before the American public, is Hop Bitters. You see it everywhere. People take it with good effect. It builds them up. It is not as pleasant to the taste as some other Bitters, as it is not a whisky drink. It is more like the old fashioned boueset tea, that has done a world of good. WHO KILLED MORGAN?

The recent move to raise a monument in memory of Free Mason Morgan has called up anew the question: "Who killed Morgan?" An old citizen of Detroit was on his way down town yester-day when he met an acquaintance and seized the moment to inquire:

"I suppose you know they are going to erect a monument to Morgan?" "Oh, yes."

"Very mysterious death!"

"So it was."
"Generally believed that the Free Masons killed him?" "Yes, some folks believe it."
"Let's see—I think you are a Mason yourself?"
"Yes."

"Then you must know?"

"Well, I suppose I do."
"Then, sir, I demand to know who killed Morgan?" 'You don't want to know to-day, do

"Yes, sir-right off."

The Mason beckoned the old man around the corner, looked all around to see that no one was near, and then whispered in his ear:

"You won't give it away?"
"No!"

"On your solemn word?"

"Then I'll tell you-I killed him myself "Sir! you are an infernal liar!" roared the old man. "Yes, sir, you lie, sir, and I won't have anything more to do with

BRIGHAM YOUNG'S GRAVE.

They say that Brigham Young's grave is looking as bare and desolate as a boulevard now. At first, while her grief was fresh, his widow used to march out there five abreast, and just naturally deluge the grave with scalding tears, and at that time the green grass grew luxuriantly and the pigweed wave: in the soft summer air; but as she learned to control her emotions the humidity of the atmosphere disappeared and grief's grand ir-sphere disappeared and grief's grand ir-rigation failed to give down. We should learn from this that the man who flatters himself that in marrying a whole precinct during life he is piling up for the future a large invoice of ungovernable woe is liable to get left. The prophet's tomb looks to-day like a deserted buffalo wallow, while his widow has dried her tears and is trying to make a mash on the Utah Commission. Such is life in the far West, and such the fitting resting place of a red-headed old galvanized prophet who marries a equint-eyed fly-up-the-creek, and afterwards gets a special revelation requiring him to marry a female mass-meeting. Let us be thankful for what we have instead of yearning for a great wealth of wife. Then the life insurance will not have to be scattered so, and our friends will be spared the humiliating reacting of a brooff and some processing of the spared to the scattered so. spectacle of a bereft and sorrowing herd of widow, turned loose by the cold hand of death to monkey o'er our tomb. -Bill Nye.

PILES are frequently preceded by sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, as flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture, like perspiration products of the stomach of t ration, producing a very disagreeable itching, particularly at night after getting warm in bed, is a very common at-tendant. Internal, External and Itching Piles yield at once to the applica-tion of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the Tumors, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a per-manent cure where all other remedies have failed. Do not delay until the drain on the system produces permanent disability, but try it and be cured. Price, 50 cents. Ask your druggist for t, and when you can not obtain it of him, we will send it, prepaid, on receipt of price. Address the Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Piqua, Ohio. Sold by Durbin, Wright & Co. june1gy

THE Cameron Stalwarts in Pennsylvania and the Arthur administration Stalwarts in the State of New York seem doomed to worse defeat than overtook the Calico Foster, Robeson-Keifer party in Ohio. The New York Times, leading Republican paper, explains the philosophy of this: "There was a time in the history of Republicanism when a repulse in a great State like Ohio would have aroused "Boss" rule has become so odious that the better elements in the Republican ranks are determined to make an end of it even if to accomplish that object it shall be necessary to place the Demo-cracy in power. The Doctor's Last Happy Resort, Evansville, Ind., Jan. 11, 1882.

I recently had a very difficult case of Consumption. I treated it in the most scientific manner possible, but to no effect; patient grew gradually worse. Rather than give up, and as a last resort, I decided, much against my wish, to use a remedy that had cured one of my former patients. "How is it, my dear," inquired the teacher, "that you do not understand this simple thing?" "I do not know, indeed," she answered with a perplexed look; "but I sometimes think I have so many things to learn that I have not time to understand!"
